

INSTITUTE OF OBJECTIVE STUDIES, NEW DELHI, INDIA

Three-day International Online Conference on

“Environment, Social and Religious Consequences on Human Evolution”

On 27-29th May, 2021 at New Delhi (India)

CONCEPT NOTE

INTRODUCTION

This International conference aims to bring together leading academicians, scientists, researchers, and scholars to exchange and share their experiences related to Human Evolution and its environment, social and religious prospects. This conference will be a premier interdisciplinary platform for researchers and educators to present and discuss their current innovations, trends, practical challenges encountered and solutions adopted in the fields of Human Evolution. We facilitate the dissemination of research, promote bilateral cooperation between scientists and communicate the importance of ecology and evolution to the general public. The meeting is one of the premier opportunities for sharing research on evolutionary social biology. The overarching goal of the conference is to assemble experts with multidisciplinary thinking to collaborate in new cross-bridging initiatives to study human diversity across the globe. We hope this virtual meeting will allow you to share your research and stay connected with great researchers without leaving your home.
