

Journal of Objective Studies

Vol.I : No.1& 2

July/October 1989

Editorial	v-vii
Articles
The Feasibility of Applying the US Minority Business Development Model to Stimulate Entrepreneurship among Indian Muslims Abdul Quader J. Shaikh	1-11
Caste and Indian Muslims Jamil Farooqui	12-23
Islamic Egalitarianism Vs Social Hierarchy A.R. Momin	24-32
Impact of Islam on Aboriginal Tribes in India:A Case Study of the Tadvi of Satpuda Hills M.K.A. Siddiqi	33-45
The Need for an Islamic Theory and Methodology of History Khalid Yahya Blankinship	55-64
The Origin and Growth of an Islamicate Historiography in India Iqtidar H. Siddiqi	65-88
A Study of the Mughal Policy in the Deccan Sangahsen Singh	89-94
Islamic Ethics: Some Theoretical Questions	95-100

S.A. Shaida
Perspectives
Public Economics of Islamic Egalitarianism K.K. Upadhyaya	101-108
Interest Free Banking: Conceptual Framework and Implementation in Pakistan Navneet Mal Prohit	109-118
Book Review	119-122
Research in Progress	123-126
About the Contributors	127
The Institute of Objective Studies	128-130
Journal of Objective Studies	131-134
IOS Announcement	135

Back