INSTITUTE OF OBJECTIVE STUDIES

A Profile

The IOS (established in 1986) has successfully completed 35 years of its existence with steady progress and widening the scope of its endeavours as a non-political and non-profitable organisation. It has gained recognition in all relevant quarters at national and international plane for promoting research, conducting surveys on relevant themes, publishing books and journals in areas of national concern and pressing challenges of civil societies, awarding scholarships to meritorious university scholars, actively participating in social welfare, educational and management fields. The focal areas may also be identified for developing development models suiting to Indian masses particularly the poor, marginalised and deprived sections; initiatives to foster world peace, and strive hard to develop mechanisms and environment for conflict resolution. It has also responded actively to national issues particularly relating to problems and placement of minorities in general and Muslims in particular. It has tried its best to uphold the ideals of secularism, democracy, rule of law and Constitutionalism.

The IOS has specifically tried to create linkages with other NGOs on practical levels by creating synergy for collaborative efforts and programmes. Another notable area of interest has been to work on regional problems and profiles of marginalised sections of society in different regions of India. It is found that the five regional chapters of the Institute could play a substantial role in these sectors. This is an area, which requires to expand particularly the spheres concerning weaker sections of society in a planned manner. However, there is a lot to be done in such and other relevant fields. The envisaged role of NGOs in national reconstruction calls for greater and wider space to be covered by the IOS.

The Institute has acquired marked credibility in few select areas namely achieving steady progress in bringing together a galaxy of social scientists, policy planners and social workers. The brain storming efforts have resulted into creating an intellectual movement all over the country among scholars, community leaders and social activists. Secondly, the IOS could create a synergy to focus on the problems of weaker sections of society, the marginalised and suffering from deprivation. It has tried to foster healthy inter-community linkages among various sections of society. Studies in areas of Dalits, OBCs etc. are conducted even through collaboration with other NGOs working in concerned areas. Thirdly, it has struggled hard to save and augment secular, democratic and constitutional values of Indian legal, civilisational and cultural base line. It has tirelessly worked in all odds at all levels in past years.

The achievements, programmes and performance have caused a substantial rise in expectancy level of all concerned. It enjoys legal status and permission to conduct its affairs in terms of exemption in income tax to donors, permission under FCRA (Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act) etc. The IOS is an NGO in consultative status (Roster) with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) of the UN.

The governing structure of the IOS, as per the Memorandum of Association, consists of two democratically elected bodies namely the General Assembly of 117+20 members and Governing Council of 15 elected office bearers and members. The research and academic activities are conducted through 23 academic committees in their specialised areas. The Institute has its headquarter in New Delhi along with its five chapters at Aligarh, Chennai, Calicut, Kolkata and Patna.

So far, around 425 projects, reports and translations of important books have been completed and approximately 23 others are due for completion shortly.

The Institute has become a trendsetter in the fields of conceptual and investigative research on the Quranic approach to human problems and the problems of Muslims in India. Various survey projects focused on the problems of Muslims are fulfilling a long felt need for statistical information and analysis in different areas.

Data Bank

Studies require reliable data on weaker sections, Dalits and minorities. There is acute paucity of data in these areas. The Institute has established a Data Bank to meet this deficiency. The prime purpose of the data bank is to keep abreast with the latest diversified information on the Indian population in general and Muslims in particular. The compiled data collected from various sources like journals, daily newspapers, magazines, government publications, survey reports and Internet are periodically updated on IOS website for the benefit of researchers and common users. Details can be had on IOS website (www.iosworld.org).

Scholarship Programme

The Institute had been operating a scholarship scheme under which financial assistance was provided to meritorious and deserving candidates doing Ph.D., M. Phil., Post Graduation and Graduation in social sciences, humanities, law, management, journalism and other professional courses. The total number of awards was 934 during the 16 years of its operation. The scholarship scheme is being worked out afresh and will be ready for implementation on a much larger scale.

Journals and Newsletters

The Institute is publishing two biannual academic journals ("The Journal of Objective Studies" and "The Journal of Religion and Law Review") on regular basis. The IOS started bringing out a quarterly academic journal in Urdu (Mutaleaat) from 2006. Besides these journals, one monthly Newsletter is published in English and a quarterly Newsletter in Urdu to keep informed and maintain regular contact with scholars. The IOS also launched "IOS Current Affairs" and "IOS Minaret" as Web magazines in addition to "Nuqta-e-Nazar" in Urdu.

Special Programmes

The IOS Shah Waliullah Award – The institution of Shah Waliullah Award was made in 1998. Since then, the award is conferred annually on eminent scholars with outstanding work in Social Sciences, Humanities, Law and Islamics. The award carries a sum of Rs 100,000, a citation and a memento. An essay competition is also organised along with the Award for scholars below 45 years of age. The best essay is awarded with Rs 25,000 and a certificate. So far award to 14 eminent personalities has already been conferred upon by the Institute under this category.

The IOS Lifetime Achievement Award - The IOS has constituted an Award in the name of 'The IOS Award for Lifetime Contribution to National Life', in the year 2007, presented each year to an individual/organization for his/their contribution to national life and for infusing a sense of morality and sanity in national life, for integrity and probity in public life for sincere and selfless service to society, especially to marginalised group and communities. The Award carries a citation, memento and an amount of Rs. One Lac. So far award to 9 eminent personalities / institution has already been conferred upon under this category.

Qazi Mujahidul Islam Qasmi Memorial Lecture - Started in the year 2003, lecture under Qazi Mujahidul Islam Qasmi Memorial Lecture series is organised each year by a distinguished Islamic scholar. So far 11 lectures under the series have been organised under different themes.

IOS Calendar - The IOS has been bringing out yearly calendar since the beginning of its establishment with data related to Islamic World and Indian Muslims.
