The Hzir Özbek mosque, according to the inscriptive plaque above a window, was built by Hzir Özbek b. Muhammad in 1334 AD, three years following the conquest of Iznik by Orhan I. Source: http://archnet.org/sites/2044

The mosque was originally built without a minaret, the existing minaret is on the northeast. The other butres, called bey or Orhan Hamami, are located in the vicinity of the mosque. Turkey: Türkiye Arşiv ve Araştırma Enstitüsü (2012). Source: http://archnet.org/sites/1912/media_contents/7455
